

CLUB GIRLS FROLIC IN BATHING SUITS IN SNOW BANKS IN ZERO WEATHER

UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

The "Snow Birds," a club of girls, and the "Polar Bears," the male auxiliary, didn't mind the two feet of snow and the zero temperature and appeared as usual for their weekly Sunday frolic in bathing suits at Brighton Beach while hundreds of spectators shivered in furs.

A little girl had sent back her plate for chicken two or three times, and had been helped bountifully to all the other rich things that go to make a good dinner. Finally she was observed looking rather disconsolately at her unfinished plate of pudding. "What's the matter, Dora?" asked Uncle John. "You look mournful."

"That's just the matter," said Dora. "I am more'n full." Then she wondered why everybody laughed.
